ABOUT US

Established in 1982 by a veterinarian, Éditions Michel Quintin initially focused on publishing popular science books about animals, nature, and the environment.

Thanks to the dedication of a savvy, dynamic team with an eye for daring, original ideas, the publishing house list later grew to include all genres of novels, picture books and comic books in addition to educational and reference guides.

Today, it's one of the leading contributors to young adult literature and ranks as the 4th largest publisher of franco-phone comic books and graphic novels in Canada.

These efforts to publish an increasing variety of quality books have resulted in prestigious awards and a loyal following of young and adult readers. Around fifty new titles are added to the in-house catalogue every year, which now consists of 1,000 publications, with an additional 300 digital books, several bestsellers and international editions.

Éditions Michel Quintin acknowledges the support of the Government of Canada, the Government of Québec, the Canada Council for the Arts and the Sodec.

ELJUN'S CHOSEN

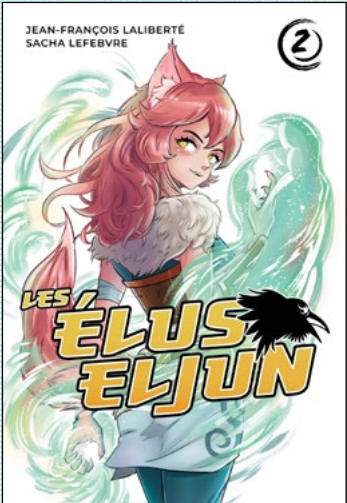

Jean-François Laliberté
Ill.: Sacha Lefebvre

At the heart of the nine worlds, an eternal duel opposes Eljun, the Tree of Life, and Ginnung, the Great Void. These Chosen have the daunting task of moving between worlds and defending them against the onslaught of Ginnung's minions.

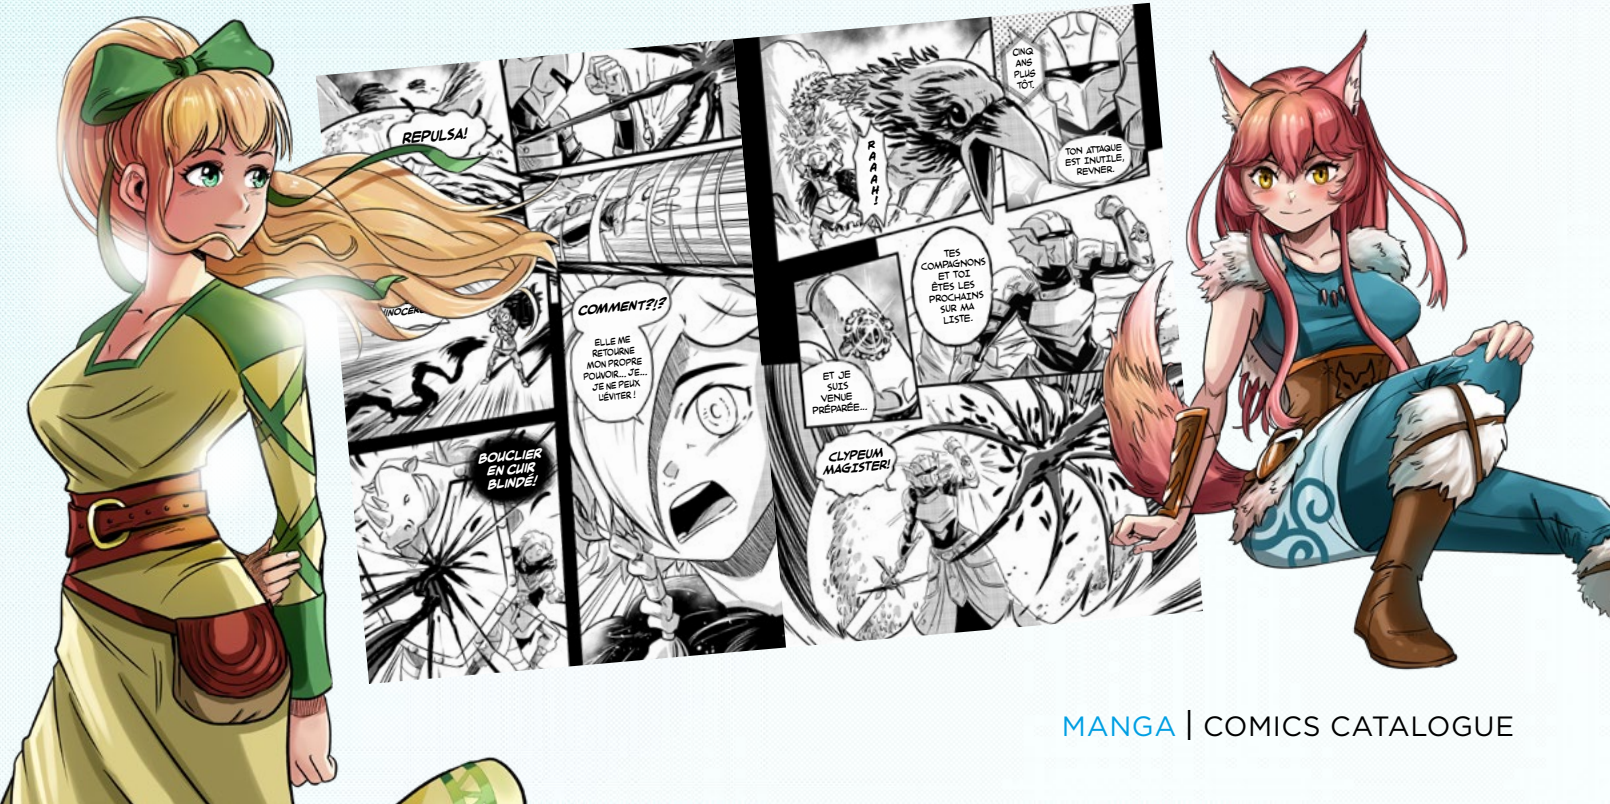

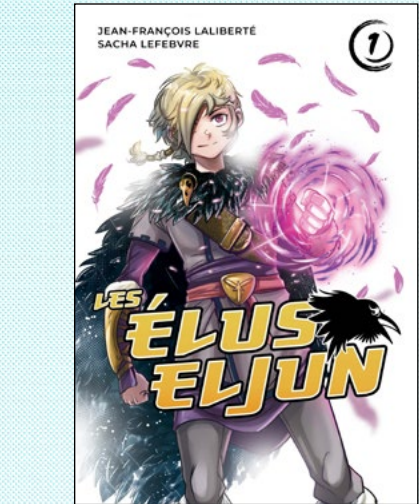

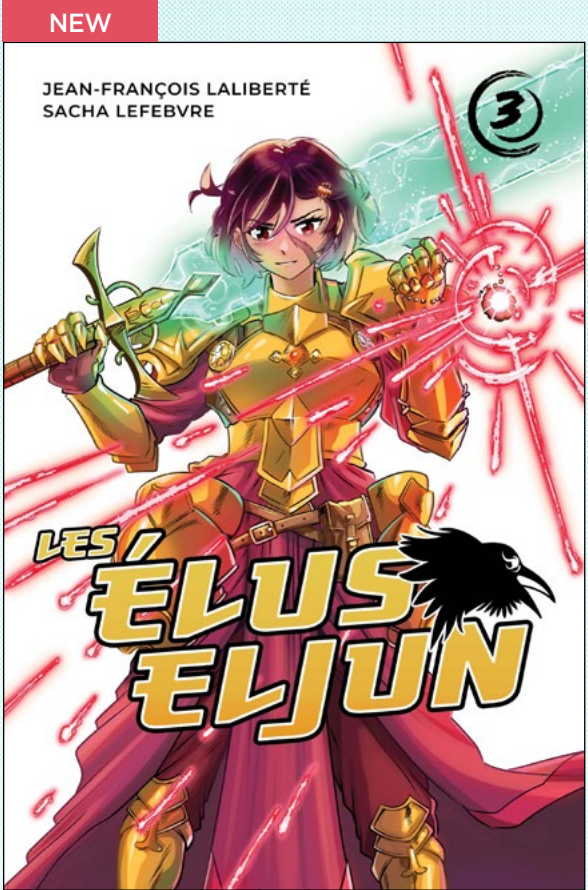

Following a terrible confrontation with Hrym, a Chosen Hunter, Revner and his companions are slain. Ulfa, the sole survivor, tries to find Revner, who, just before dying, activated his power of reincarnation.

Meanwhile, Revner has become a shepherd and no longer has any memory of his past as a Chosen. When goblins threaten the tranquility of his village, he once again assumes his role as hero, unaware of the power that lies dormant within him.
